

No Glaze Meatloaf

- 1 pound ground beef (80% lean)
- 1 pound Jimmy Dean Regular sausage
- 4 oz prosciutto chopped fine (see 2 notes)
- 1 cup Italian or herb seasoned stuffing mix
- 1 cup buttermilk
- 3/4 cup finely chopped yellow onion
- 3/4-1 cup finely chopped sweet red pepper (or green)
- 1/2-3/4 cup finely chopped celery
- 2 large eggs beaten
- 1 ounce finely chopped flat leaf parsley
- 1 cup grated parmesan reggiano cheese
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon black pepper
- 4 teaspoons dried basil
- 2 teaspoons dried oregano
- 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
- 4 cloves minced garlic (20-30gm)
- 1/2 teaspoon Accent (or not)

Gather all ingredients. Combine the stuffing mix and buttermilk and let set for at least 10 minutes. Sweat the onion, pepper, and celery in your choice of oil (I use bacon fat) for maybe 5-7 min. on med high heat. In a large bowl mix all ingredients well. Divide the mixture into two and form each into a loaf shape. Cook in your cooker of choice at your temperature of choice to an internal temperature of 155 degrees.

Notes:

- The prosciutto was a late adder to this recipe and if you are sensitive to salt you can reduce the amount, omit it, or use half the salt.
- If you like spicier food omit the prosciutto and use 2 oz. of capicola chopped fine (our fave).
- If you make a double batch you can use one Jimmy Dean Regular and one Jimmy Dean Hot, mixing them to add a little heat which we like.
- I form these in tin pans lined with plastic wrap, cool in fridge for at least an hour, then transfer them to frog mats to cook on the pellet grill. If cooked in the oven I would put them on a rack above a pan.
